Dopkins & Company, LLP
CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS AND CONSULTANTS

JAMES A. KRUPINSKI, CPA
Partner, Assurance Services Group

Jim has over 25 years of experience providing audit and consulting services to clients from a diverse range of industries, including manufacturing, agricultural cooperatives, construction, service, retail, not-for-profit, employee benefit plans, group workers compensation trusts, government contractors, wholesale distributors and financial services.

In addition to his many audit management responsibilities, Jim currently serves as a leader in the Firm's risk management services group. He has assisted his clients with performing risk assessments, evaluating and improving internal controls, developing fraud prevention programs and complying with the requirements of Sarbanes Oxley's assessment of internal controls over financial reporting requirements. He is also an integral member of Dopkins Employee Benefit Team, and remains focused on best practices to improve audits, client communications on industry developments and providing value to governance committees. Jim also serves in a leadership capacity in the management of the Dopkins quality control practices in the areas of audit and accounting.

Committed to educating clients about the latest accounting trends and developments, Jim's recent speaking engagements include Best Practices on Fraud Awareness and Prevention, the COSO Framework of Internal Controls and the new Revenue Recognition Standard. He is a member of the Institute of Internal Auditors (IIA), the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and the National Society of Accountants for Cooperatives (NSAC).

Jim is an Advisory Board member for the Lancaster Central Schools Academy of Finance and has been a participant in the National Multiple Sclerosis Walk since 1999.
