

BRENDAN P. BRADY CPA, CVA

Director, Assurance Services Group

A member of Dopkins Family Owned Business team, Brendan leads assurance engagements as well as internal control projects in a wide range of industries, including manufacturing, employee benefit plans, family owned/private held entities as well as retail and wholesale operations. He is a leader of the Firm's efforts to assist entities in implementing the new revenue recognition standard, and is one of the leaders of the Firm's employee benefit plan audit practice. He focuses on gaining a deep understanding of the operations of the companies he serves, allowing him to work closely with management to provide insights into opportunities for operational improvements. Brendan's responsibilities also include development and supervision of training programs for members of the Assurance Services department, implementation of new auditing standards, and assisting clients in implementing new accounting standards.

He is a frequent presenter on accounting matters that impact business clients. Recent speaking engagements include the preparation for the new Revenue Recognition Standard, as well as Best Practices on Fraud Awareness and Prevention.

Brendan remains committed to the Western New York community through service, including his current role as Vice-President, Finance for the University at Buffalo Alumni Association. He also serves as Treasurer of the Board of Trustees for the Irish Classical Theatre Company, and is a member of the Theatre's Planning Committee for its annual signature fundraising event. In addition, he is a member of the Finance Committee for Gerard Place, an organization dedicated to providing housing and supportive programs for homeless, single-parent families.

Brendan is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and the Buffalo Chapter of the New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants (NYSSCPA).
